Dear Mr. Stillman:

I apologize for not answering your letter of the 10th before this but am happy to state that I can now accept your cordial invitation to address the Reserve City Bankers meeting at Palm Beach on the 9th or 10th of April. It is a compliment to be asked to talk to such an eminent group, and I only hope that my discussion may prove of some value to your membership.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely,
